Five Star Technology Solutions

Message from our Founder & CEO

We appreciate and welcome your interest in Five-Star Technology Solutions!

At Five-Star, we are committed to working with schools to create awesome learning experiences for kids.

Five-Star Technology Solutions is different than other technology companies because our team is made up of experienced educators who truly understand the pressures teachers and schools face across the country. Being former educators, we understand and recognize the general “one size fits all” approach to Information Technology (IT) dominating the education market is failing both teachers and their students. Then, as now, we understand the need for strategic planning to exploit and utilize the tremendous benefits technology offers in terms of maximizing student achievement and staff development.

Our experienced engineers, developers, strategic advisors, and leadership team have worked tirelessly to develop a range of innovative products and support services that address your specific needs and expectations. Together these solutions represent the finest available today with confirmation from our clients and partners that we are making a direct impact in terms of improving school success.

By working together we can truly make a difference for your school district, teachers, students, and community.

Sincerely,

Jim Benson
